Audio Streaming Media

Kindergarten Bible Study Guide contains Bible stories and activities for families to do together during family worship at home. (Ages 3-4)

Primary Bible Study Guide contains Bible stories and activities for families to do together during family worship time at home. (Ages 5-9)

Junior Powerpoints Bible Study Guide is based on Bible stories or scripture, and includes questions for discussion and supporting texts that highlight Bible principles, helping the young learners draw lessons for application. (Ages 10-14)

Your Story Hour produces family-friendly radio dramas based on the Bible, historical heroes, and true-to-life adventures. Our dramatized stories teach Biblical values, positive character traits, and principles for good decision-making. (All ages)

Discovery Mountain is a dramatized audio program where listeners experience adventure, mystery, camp fire songs and, most importantly, get to know Jesus. (Ages 6-12)

Braille Magazine

The Children's Friend is filled with stories about outdoor adventures, missionary endeavors, children confronting peer pressure, and Bible stories. Issued quarterly in Braille and BRF. (Ages 9-12)

The Naomi Turner Library for the Blind

About 2,000 audiobooks for all ages and reading levels are available to members who live in the United States.

Audiobooks are available on digital cartridges compatible with players distributed by the state services of the National Library Service (NLS) and digital download.

NOTE: Christian Record does not provide digital players. Digital players are available from the member's local NLS network library for the blind to readers in the U.S.

Books may be checked out for 30 days and renewed upon request and are sent on a return/send basis. A member must return the first book borrowed to receive the second book, and so on. Letters or emails are sent to remind members to return overdue books.

All cartridge books are sent in postage-free, remailable containers. To return the books to the library, remove the address card from its holder on the mailer, turn it over, replace it in the holder, and mail the container. Check the mailer for proper contents before returning.

National Camps for Blind Children

Join the adventure at blind camp! Camp challenges people to achieve greater self-confidence in a safe, spiritual environment. Campers make lifelong friends and try lots of new things together.

Summer campers enjoy canoeing, archery, crafts, horseback riding, and lots more!

Winter camps feature snowmobiling, skiing, sledding, and other winter activities.

Visit BlindCamps.org for the schedule and locations.

All camps are free (camps charge a small application fee) to those who qualify and are held in locations across the United States.

About Christian Record

Christian Record Services, Inc. is a ministry of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America, serving people worldwide of all faiths and walks of life who are blind. The availability of services may vary by region due to contractual agreements.

Austin O. Wilson started the organization in 1899 when he produced a Christian Braille magazine, the Christian Record, with an old clothes ringer he modified to accommodate two metal Braille plates.

Christian Record is recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization, so tax-deductible donations from supporters like you make these free resources possible.
